

On the second Wednesday of each month we open our Sanctuary from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. This provides an opportunity for members of our Colborne family, as well as those in the wider London community, to take some time to be in a place where the presence of God and Jesus is intended to be foremost in our awareness. Thus one may find here a refuge from the weariness of daily routine and a time for prayer, contemplation and meditation.